With KenKen now firmly established in the country's most prestigious newspaper, it's time to introduce the next part of my master plan: the KenWord.

The rules are like you'd expect from the component puzzles: enter clue answers in a grid, no numbers repeat, ....

Not above
Adjective in second Bill & Ted film's title Pugilist
UCLA athlete
Sound from a frog
One member of a Dan Brown title group Baker's $\qquad$
Command for Fido
Like the top of a latte
Prayer before a meal
Unit of frequency
Biblical figure who dreamt of a ladder
Poet Ezra
A patchwork of squares
Dominion
Amendment guaranteeing a speedy trial
Painter's protection
Treat for Scooby
Type of political speech
First digit?
Essential
A dance, typically in 3/4 time
Tilt-a- $\qquad$
Device to clean a windshield

