

[Note: Professor Tangram welcomed teams to a special course: Advanced Tangram Solving. Before starting into the coursework, he checked that each team had the proper "prerequisites" by playing a variation of Pictionary. One person from each team picked a word from Prof. Tangram's cap, and then had to arrange the tangram pieces so that the rest of the team could guess the word. Upon success, teams finally received their clue envelope, containing the following pages.]

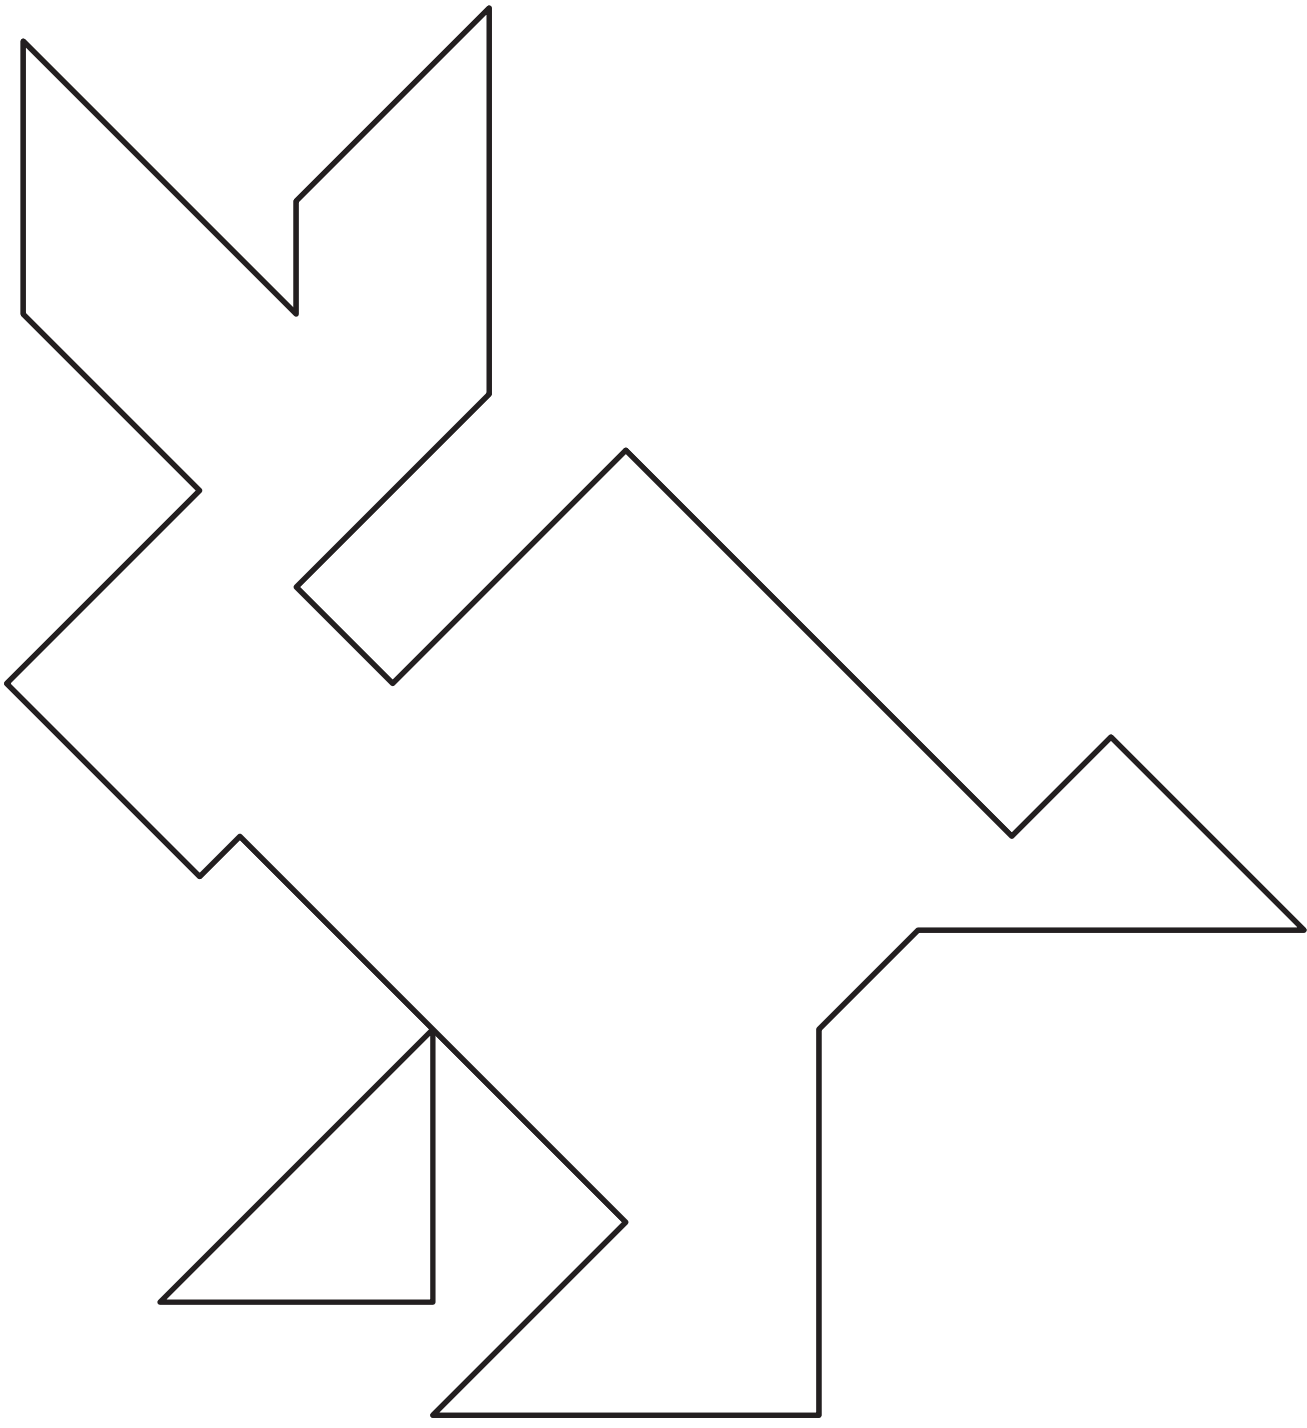

On the following pages are sample diagrams for the full set of Professor Tangram's challenges, using the classic Tangram shapes.
